

Lovoc

Lovoc

A Sustainable Screen Solution.

A modular, sustainable workstation screen designed with the entire product lifecycle in mind.

The unique and patented manufacturing process of Lovoc Screens provide outstanding sustainability credentials.

Lovoc Screens are designed for disassembly at the end of the product lifecycle.

Components can easily be separated and sorted into the correct recycling streams.

Our patented manufacturing process eliminates stitching and minimises glue usage, enabling easy disassembly and recycling of all raw materials at its end of life. The result is an environmentally responsible product that emits very low VOCs*.

Lovoc screens are flat-packed for minimal carbon footprint during transportation.

*VOC: Volatile Organic Compounds
3rd Party tested 0.013 mg/m²/hr which is 38 times lower than the acceptable VOC emission rate of less than 0.500 mg/m²/hr.

Lovoc Screens can be mounted to the worktop, or to the workstation frame, and are available in a wide range of sizes and configurations.
